

CALL FOR CHOREOGRAPHERS

Against the Grain/Men in Dance is seeking male and female choreographers for its 9th Festival to be held October 12th, 13th, 14th and 19th, 20th, 21st 2012 at the Broadway Performance Hall on Capitol Hill in Seattle. Pieces chosen will perform one or possibly both weekends. A set honorarium will be paid to dancers and choreographers. Depending on the success of our grant applications and box office returns the amount provided may increase. Group pieces are encouraged, but we are looking for a mix of solos, duets, small and large groups.

We also welcome site-specific pieces for pre or post performances.

Application Deadline is March 31, 2012

To be considered please send:

1. A written proposal of intended work (10 minutes maximum), including the number of dancers you plan on using. Please provide the dancer's names if they are known. All performers must be male.
2. Your Resume with references and phone numbers.
3. DVD or online sample, showing no less than two pieces, with a minimum of 3-5 minutes of your unedited work.
4. If submitting a previously performed work, please provide a DVD/online sample of said work and history of its performances and reviews if they are available.
